PRESS RELEASE

NATIONAL UNDER-17 TEAM ENCAMPED

– Prepares For Martinique Invitational Tournament

24th February, 2017; Georgetown: Encampment for the National Under-17 team has commenced with an eighteen-man squad in preparation for their participation in the “Tournoi Paul Chillan” in Martinique from March 1 – 5, 2017.

The tournament will feature six countries including Guadeloupe, French Guiana, Trinidad and Tobago, Haiti and Martinique.

The eight-day camp, which began on the 21st February, consists of nine players from the Georgetown Football Association (GFA), two each from the East Bank Football Association (EBFA) and East Demerara Football Association (EDFA) and one player each from the Berbice Football Association (BFA), Rupununi Football Association (RFA) and Upper Demerara Football Association (UDFA). There is also one overseas-based player from the United States of America (USA). Please see complete squad below

Among them are two goalkeepers, six defenders and midfielders each and four forwards. They are supervised by a six-man technical squad headed by Technical Director, Ian Greenwood and Head Coach Bryan Joseph.

Among the other technical team members are Team Manager Carlos Bernard, Assistant Coach Gilbert Sampson, Goalkeeping Coach Eon De Veira, Physiotherapist Seulear Hope-Ross and Referee Kenisha Prescott.
