 5. Penalties specified herein will not be applied in cases of force majeure, as verified by the CONCACAF Council.
 6. The national association of any penalized team shall be responsible for ensuring that the specified sanctions are complied with.

V. CONCACAF ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

- A. The Organizing Committee for the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers, appointed by the CONCACAF Council, is responsible for the organization of the competition.
- B. The Organizing Committee shall, amongst other matters, be responsible for:
1. Supervising general preparations, deciding on the match system, the draws and forming the groups.
 2. Fixing dates, venues and stadia for the matches.
 3. Determining kick-off times.
 4. Appointing match commissioners, technical study group and, security officers.
 5. Deciding which laboratories will carry out the doping analyses
 6. Informing the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee of any breaches of the applicable doping regulations.
 7. Deciding which matches will be subject to doping tests
 8. Choosing the official football and the stipulated technical material
- C. The Organizing Committee's decisions shall be final.

VI. DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

- A. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee is responsible for enforcing these Regulations. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may suppletorily apply the FIFA Disciplinary Code until the entree into force of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code (when it will apply subsidiarity). In particular, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may apply the sanctions described in these regulations, the CONCACAF Statutes and all other CONCACAF rules and regulations as well as the FIFA Disciplinary Code (and, upon its enforcement, in the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code).
- B. In cases of infringement of these and all applicable regulations or unsporting behavior on the part of the participating Teams, their players, officials and/or staff, or in any kind of incident, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee shall be empowered to:
1. Admonish, sanction, fine, suspend and/or disqualify teams, their players, officials and/or staff. Take action against any person(s) or national association(s) which may violate the Competition Regulations, the Laws of the Game or the rules of Fair Play.

2. Prohibit violators from participating in a specific number of the CONCACAF-organized tournaments in which they might otherwise have participated.
- C. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may refer to the CONCACAF Council any matter relating to an infringement of these Regulations as it sees fit whether for further sanction or any other reason.
- D. CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee decisions may be based upon written record or by conducting a hearing.
1. When making a decision, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may refer to the reports made by the referee, assistant referees, fourth official, match commissioners, referee inspector, general coordinator, technical delegate, security officer, diversity officer and any other CONCACAF staff or officials present. Such reports may be used as evidence but only in so far as the disciplinary aspects of the case being dealt with are concerned and shall not affect a referee's decision regarding facts connected with play.
 2. At its discretion, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may convene a personal hearing and will decide any procedures to be followed. Decisions of such hearings shall only be valid if at least three members of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee are present.
- E. The following decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be subject to appeal:
1. Cautions and censures imposed on players and officials and any other persons or national associations.
 2. Suspensions of up to two matches, or of up to two months, imposed on players and officials or any other persons.
 3. Fines imposed on players and officials or any other persons (not exceeding $3,500) or on national associations (not exceeding $10,000).
- F. The appropriate national association under the provisions of its own regulations shall punish any other offenses that may be committed during the course of the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers by its officials or any other personnel used for the competition. For this purpose, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee

- shall refer the referee's report of the match in question to the appropriate national association.
The national association will, in turn, report back to the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee on the resolution of the matter and any disciplinary action taken.
- G. Except in cases of force majeure as recognized by CONCACAF, if a team does not report for a match, or if it refuses to commence or continue to play, or leaves the stadium before the end of the match, the team shall be considered to have lost the match with a score of 3-0 or more. If in the case of an abandoned match during the group stage, the winning team will be awarded a 3-0 score, or higher depending on the result of the match.
- H. If a game is suspended due to withdrawal, the team(s) refusing to complete the match shall be ineligible to participate in the next two editions of the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers.
- I. Any other infringement of these regulations, whether by players or officials that are punishable by economic sanctions shall be reported to the CONCACAF General Secretariat for consideration by the CONCACAF Council.
- J. All economic sanctions assessed must be paid by the appropriate national association no later than sixty (60) days after notification. Unless otherwise specified, the total amount of all fines will accrue to CONCACAF.
- K. Cautions and Suspensions
1. Cautions received during any other competition are not carried over to this Competition.
 2. Pending match suspensions (in relation to a direct red card or an indirect red card) will be carried over to the Competition.
 3. Single yellow cards will get eliminated at the end of the Group Stage.
 4. Two (2) cautions received in different games of the Competition shall result in an automatic suspension from the next game in the Competition.
 5. Red card (direct or indirect) suspensions shall be served regardless of the stage of the Competition.
 6. Match suspensions not served during the Competition shall be carried over to the representative team's next official match per the FIFA Disciplinary Code (art. 38 par. 2), including to the first match(es) of the 2018 CONCACAF Women's Under-17 Championship for the teams that qualify.

VII. APPEALS COMMITTEE

- A. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee shall hear appeals eligible to be lodged against decisions taken by the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee.
- B. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee may suppletorily apply the FIFA Disciplinary Code until the entree into force of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code (when it will apply subsidiarity). In particular, the CONCACAF Appeals Committee may conduct any appeals procedures in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
- C. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee shall reach its decisions on the basis of the documents and other means of evidence contained in the Disciplinary Committee's file. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee may additionally, at its sole discretion, also consider additional evidence, including television and video recordings, which it considers relevant.
- D. Decisions pronounced by the Appeals Committee are final and binding.

VIII. PROTESTS

- A. Protests subject to the following provisions are objections of any kind connected with matches organized in the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers.
- B. Protests shall be submitted, except if the following provisions stipulate a different procedure, in writing to the match commissioner or CONCACAF representative at the match not later than two hours after the game and followed up immediately with a written report, including the original protest, to be sent to the CONCACAF General Secretariat by fax within 24 hours of the match in question.
- C. Protests for reasons outlined in paragraphs D, E, and F, must be accompanied by a fee of $200 USD, payable to CONCACAF.
- D. Protests against the eligibility of players taking part in any matches in the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers shall be submitted in writing to the referee or the match commissioner not later than two hours after the match in question and confirmed by fax or registered letter to be sent to the CONCACAF General Secretariat within 24 hours of the match in question.

- E. Protests against any incidents that occur during a match shall be directed to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has been resumed. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the match commissioner or CONCACAF representative at the match by the head of the team delegation not later than two hours after the match in question.
- F. Protests as to the state of the pitch, markings, the accessory equipment (goals, etc.) or the ball, shall be made in writing to the referee before the start of the match. If the turf becomes unplayable during the match, the team captain concerned shall immediately inform the referee in the presence of the captain of the opposing team.
- G. No protests may be made against the referee's decisions on points of fact connected with play, such decisions being final.
- H. National associations may not bring disputes with CONCACAF before a Court of Justice and they shall undertake to submit any such disputes without reservation to the jurisdiction of the competent authority of CONCACAF and FIFA.
- I. The expenses, which arise from a protest, shall be charged by CONCACAF, either wholly or in part, to the losing party.
- J. If an unfounded or irresponsible protest is lodged, the Organizing Committee responsible may impose a fine.
- K. Once the winning teams of the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers have been proclaimed, any protest or complaint about the sports procedure followed during the competition shall be disregarded.

IX. MEDICAL AND DOPING CONTROL

- A. In order to protect players' health as well as to prevent players from experiencing sudden cardiac death during matches at the Competition, each Participating Member Association shall ensure and confirm to the Organizing Committee that its players underwent a pre-competition medical assessment (PCMA) prior to the start of the Competition. The PCMA will include a full medical assessment as well as an EKG to identify any cardiac abnormality. If the EKG is abnormal an

- Echocardiogram must be obtained and be normal before a player can be released to play. The medical assessment must be carried out between 270 days and 35 days prior to the start of the Competition. The Organizing Committee will provide the PCMA form to all Participating Member Associations.
- B. The duly licensed medical representative of each Participating Member Association (i.e., national team doctor) will be required to sign the PCMA form certifying the accuracy of the results and confirming that the players and officials have passed the pre-competition medical assessment. The medical assessment form shall also include the signatures of the President and General Secretary of the Participating Member Association and shall be received by the Organizing Committee General Secretariat at the latest seven (7) business days prior to the start of the competition.
 - C. Further to the above, each Participating Member Association is required to have a duly licensed medical professional (i.e., a doctor) as part of their official delegation. Such doctor must be fully integrated and familiar with all medical aspects of the delegation and must remain with the delegation throughout the entire official period of the Competition. The Match Officials (the Referees) will refer to such team doctor in all cases as required and necessary.
 - D. The Organizing Committee, the Host Association and CONCACAF shall not be held liable for any injury sustained by any participating player or official. Equally, the Organizing Committee, the Host Association and CONCACAF shall not be held liable for any incident (including death) linked to any injury or health problem(s) of any participating player or official.
 - E. As stated in these Regulations, each Participating Member Association shall be responsible throughout the Competition for providing medical, travel and accident insurance coverage for all the members of its delegation throughout the Competition. Proof of insurance must be provided to the Organizing Committee no later than 14 days before the start of the Competition. In addition, and in accordance with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players, the club with which any participating player is registered shall be responsible for player's insurance coverage against illness and accident during the entire period of the player's release.
 - F. Failure to comply with the aforementioned provision shall be sanctioned by the Disciplinary Committee.

- G. In regards to non-traumatic loss of consciousness during a game, the referee will assume sudden cardiac failure until proven otherwise. In such instances, the referee will signal (hand to the chest) to the team doctor and the medical emergency team (stretcher team) to immediately institute comprehensive resuscitation that includes the use of a defibrillator (AED) and CPR. It is the responsibility of the Hosting Association to ensure that there is a properly functioning AED immediately at hand and that there is an ambulance with an access and egress plan.
- H. During the match if there is a traumatic head injury and concussion to a player, and the player remains on the field of play, the referee shall stop play. In these instances, the referee will signal (hand to the top of the head) to the team doctor to enter the field to assess and manage the player. Up to three minutes should be sufficient time to make this assessment. Once the player has left the field of play, he must be given a Sideline Concussion Assessment Test (SCAT) or similar test. It is the responsibility of the team doctor to determine the player's ability to return to play.
- I. Further to the above, in regards to traumatic head injury and concussion, full return to play after a previous concussion must include no signs or symptoms of the previous head injury as well as an acceptable Sideline Concussion Assessment Test (SCAT) assessment.
- J. Doping is the use of certain substances or methods capable of artificially enhancing the physical and/or mental performance of a player, with a view to improving athletic and/or mental performance. If there is medical need as defined by the player's doctor, then a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) application must be filed 21 days prior to competition for chronic conditions and as soon as possible for acute situations. The TUE approval system includes a designated administrative and functional committee that will review applications and certify the exemption as the committee defines.

X. MATCHES PLAYED ACCORDING TO THE LAWS OF THE GAME

- A. All matches will be played under the Laws of the Game as approved by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA.
- B. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English text shall be authoritative.

- C. A maximum of fourteen (14) persons shall be allowed on the team bench seven (7) team officials and seven (7) substitutes. The names of these persons and their functions must be indicated on the form provided by the “fourth official” prior to the match.

XI. DURATION, EXTRA TIME, PENALTY KICKS

- A. Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes each with an interval of 15 minutes in between.
- B. If during the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women’s Under-17 Qualifiers a result is required and a match ends in a draw at the end of normal playing time, no extra time shall be played and the winner shall be determined by kicks from the penalty mark in accordance with the procedure laid down by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA.
- C. Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e., after 45 (forty-five) and 90 (ninety) minutes respectively.
- D. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, orally or by gesturing with his/her hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. Each allowance for lost time shall be announced to the players by the fourth official using the substitution cards or electronic display boards and to the public by the public announcer.

XII. FIELD OF PLAY, STADIA, BALLS

- A. The Organizing Committee shall guarantee that the fields of play chosen for the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women’s Under-17 Qualifiers comply with the Laws of the Game. They shall be subject to the approval of the Organizing Committee.
- B. The footballs for the 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women’s Under-17 Qualifiers shall be selected and supplied by CONCACAF.

XIII. UNPLAYED AND ABANDONED MATCHES

- A. If a match cannot be played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure (which includes the loss of power at the stadium), the Organizing Committee shall decide on the matter at its sole discretion and take whatever action is deemed necessary.

- B. Further to the above provision, in the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure after it has already kicked off, the following principles will apply:
1. The match shall recommence at the minute at which play was interrupted rather than being replayed in full, and with the same score line;
 2. The match shall recommence with the same players on the pitch and substitutes available as when the match was abandoned;
 3. No additional substitutes may be added to the list of players on the team sheet;
 4. The teams can make only the number of substitutions to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned;
 5. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced;
 6. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match;
 7. The kick-off time, date and location shall be decided by the Organizing Committee.

XVIII. TECHNICAL RULES

2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers

- A. 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers
 1. The 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers shall be played among no more than nineteen (19) teams, as determined by the CONCACAF Council. Three teams will advance to the CONCACAF Women's Under-17 Championship.

2. 2017 CONCACAF Caribbean Women's Under-17 Qualifiers shall be played in five host country venues. One team shall receive a bye from the Qualifying Group Stage, that being the team to host the Qualifying Final Stage.
3. Eighteen (18) teams shall be divided into a Group Stage consisting of three (3) groups (A, B and C) of four (4) teams and two (2) groups (D and E) of three (3) teams:

Group A	Group B	Group C	Group D	Group E
A1	B1	C1	D1	E1
A2	B2	C2	D2	E2
A3	B3	C3	D3	E3
A4	B4	C4

The matches in the Qualifying Group Stage shall be played in a Round Robin format, each team playing one match against each of the other teams in the same group, with three points for a win, one point for a draw, and none for a defeat.

4. At the end of Qualifying Group Stage play, and should two or more teams finish tied in points (including ties among second place teams), the manner in which teams will advance to the Final Round will be resolved as follows and in the order indicated:
 - a. Greater number of points in matches between the tied teams;
 - b. Greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
 - c. Greater number of goals scored in matches among the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal in points);
 - d. Greater goal difference in all group matches;
 - e. Great number of goals scored in all group matches;
 - f. Drawing of lots.

5. Teams that finish first in each Group (A, B, C, D & E) will automatically qualify to the Qualifying Final Stage along with the host team of the Caribbean Final. The six (6) teams will be drawn into two groups as follows:

Winner A/Winner C/Winner E = Group F
Host Final Round/ Winner B/Winner D = Group G

Group FF1
F2
F3Group GG1
G2
G3

6. Teams that finish first in the two groups (F and G), shall automatically qualify for the 2018 CONCACAF Women's Under-17 Championship and contest in a single match for the Caribbean Championship. The runner up teams of the groups (F and G) shall playoff in a single match for the third place team to qualify for the 2018 CONCACAF Women's Under-17 Championship.

The matches in the group shall be played in a Round Robin format, each team playing one match against each of the other teams in the same group, with three points for a win, one point for a draw, and none for a defeat.

7. At the end of the Qualifying Final Stage group play, should two or more teams finish tied in points (including ties among first place teams), the manner in which teams will advance to the CONCACAF Women's Under-17 Championship will be resolved as follows and in the order indicated:

- a. Greater number of points in matches between the tied teams;
- b. Greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
- c. Greater number of goals scored in matches among the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal in points);
- d. Greater goal difference in all group matches;
- e. Great number of goals scored in all group matches;
- f. Drawing of lots.
